About Brigil

Founded in 1985 by Gilles Desjardins, Brigil has greatly contributed to the economic development of the National Capital Region. Brigil has provided homes for an entire generation, and intends to continue building for those to come. Closely linked to the communities it serves, Brigil has donated several million dollars to more than 300 organizations in the National Capital Region. Gilles Desjardins has also been recognized as one of Quebec's greatest patrons of the arts, and was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal of Canada by the Governor General on November 5, 2018. The company currently has some 30 communities in the National Capital Region (12,000 units) and plans to build 33,000 new housing units over the next 15 years. Sustainable development and environmental protection are part of Brigil's DNA, as is the enhancement of heritage and historic buildings. This is why our mission goes beyond that of a builder. We build with purpose.
